

Doing Things Builds Business

If you do a lot of things to build business, you'll build business.

They don't have to be done perfectly to work, although the better you do them, the better they'll work.

But the main point is that you have to do them -- a lot.

—Joe Girard – “How To Sell Anything To Anybody